This class is in Canvas!

Canvas is coming to UBC as a replacement for Connect

To access this class's Canvas site, go to,

This semester, some of your classes may be in Connect and some may be in Canvas. You should know that,

- The transition between the two systems will take place over the next year
- Canvas was chosen due to its simple and intuitive interface, and seamless user experience
- Your CWL will be the only login you need to access both Connect and Canvas
- Which system your class uses- Canvas or Connect- won't affect your grade

If you're struggling to learn how to use Canvas, there are plenty of resources you an access for help-

- Ask friends and peers in your class for clarification
- Use the Canvas LiveChat feature (located in the left hand navigation bar) to instantly chat with Canvas support
- Go to the student support blog at the link below to see FAQs, student support resources, and to read blog posts

Canvas is mobile friendly!

- You can access Canvas through the browser on your phone or tablet by logging in with your CWL
- Under your 'Settings' page, you can add a cell phone number to have notifications sent via text directly to your phone

There is a free app downloadable for any smartphone

- You can download the mobile Canvas app through the App Store/Google Play Store and by logging in with your CWL
- Please note that some functions may not be fully functional in the mobile app until January

Why am I getting all these notifications?

- When you first login to Canvas, there are default settings for how often you are sent notifications. You can change your preference for how and what you are notified of by,

  1) Navigate 'Account' > 'Notifications'
  2) Select if you want to be notified for each option immediately, daily, weekly, or never
  3) Your notification settings automatically save and update

What if I want to learn more?

- We encourage you to explore the Canvas environment after you've logged in- discover settings, your grade book, your profile, and more by looking around this class site.
- To learn more about all things Canvas, stay tuned to
